TRADEMARKS IN URUGUAY

REQUIREMENTS

- Full details of the applicant.
- A copy of the mark
- List of goods and services.
- Power of attorney signed – no legalisation required.
- Priority document (if applicable).. The priority document must be filed within 90 days from the application filing date. It must be a copy certified by the pertinent foreign Trademark Office but without any consular or other type or legalization.

PROCEDURE

After filing the application is soon published and third parties have 30 days for filing oppositions.

Later, the trademark application undergoes the substantive examination, which generally takes between 8 and 10 months if the application receives no objections, following which it can be registered.

OBSERVATIONS

- Trademark registration is valid for 10 years from the registration date.
